

SOCIETY

Continued from Page 1.

man, Isadore Friedman and Miss Rachel Friedman, of Philadelphia. The party will also be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. Gordon at 216 East Sixth South street.

Mrs. George Olson has returned home after a month's visit in Seattle and Portland.

Miss Margaret Stewart left Monday for New York City, where she will attend Comstock school during the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. St. Clair Rivers returned Tuesday from their wedding trip to the northwest.

Mrs. Brig Cannon and little son left Saturday for a visit with Mrs. Cannon's parents in Nebraska.

Mrs. Frank E. Robinson returned Monday from a three months' visit in Twin Falls, Ida. Mr. Robinson, who has been spending a few days in the city, returned to Twin Falls Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund L. Thompson returned Friday from a month's visit in California.

Miss Beth Chapman left Friday for Evanston, Wyo., where she will spend a week at the Chapman ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Lavens Smith have returned from their wedding trip and are now at home at Frisco, Utah.

Mehring V. Eardley, an U. of U. student, who has been touring Europe for the past two months, returned to New York in time to view the naval parade. Mr. Eardley has been a student of the General Electric works of Schenectady, N. Y., for the last two years, and has met with excellent success. He will continue his studies there this winter.

Mrs. J. G. Bristol of Dempsey, Idaho, is the guest for a week or more of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Mills at 208 North State street.

Dr. S. M. Pinkerton is at home after a short trip to Idaho.

Mrs. B. S. Varian and two children of Weiser, Idaho, are here to spend a week or two with Judge and Mrs. C. S. Varian.

Miss Ina Botwell, who has spent

STOP GRAY HAIR

With Mrs. NETTIE HARRISON'S 4-DAY HAIR COLOR. It is the only entirely successful and satisfactory preparation for the purpose. Simple - Harmless - Certain. Sold for 20 years, and its friends are legion. It never fails. Price $1.00. At all druggists and at SCHRAMM'S PHARMACY, "Where the Cars Stop."

FREE

Mary T. Goldman's Gray Hair Restorer restores original color in gray hair in from 7 to 14 days. Entirely different from anything else. Its effect is permanent. Wash off and look natural. Has no odor. It is as pure and clear as water. Don't experiment. See what thousands of others have found satisfactory. Sample and comb absolutely free. Secure to obtain original color of your hair. MARY T. GOLDMAN, 377 East Main.

Smith-Bailey Drug Co., Zion's Co-operative Mercantile Institution. Full size bottle, $1.00.

Sweet's Society Chocolates

have that "different" taste that brings them 'way above the commonplace, ordinary chocolates.

They are purity in the purest and most delicious form. Packed in royal purple boxes.

All First-Class Dealers.

B

Authentic models, just as they appear in Paris, New York and London, are exhibited simultaneously with those in the world's great fashion centers.

Our New York representative keeps us supplied with the most exclusive advance modes as they first appear.

Brandwin's

One-Sixty South Main Street

the past four months in the east and abroad, arrived home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. George S. Bell and Jack left Saturday night for Los Angeles and the coast.

Mrs. M. B. Sowles is entertaining Mrs. S. W. Wiggins of Denver.

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

The Utopia club was entertained at a delightful luncheon, given Wednesday, at the home of Mrs. C. C. Crismon in First North street, the hostesses being Mrs. S. L. Mayer and Mrs. Crismon. Four tables of bridge followed the luncheon, and the prizes were awarded to Mrs. E. A. Wall, Mrs. C. M. Bell, Mrs. W. P. Beer and Miss Berry of Chicago. Mrs. Wall will be the hostess of the club at its next meeting, which will be held Wednesday, Oct. 20.

The Post Bridge club was entertained last Tuesday at the quarters of Mrs. Guy Becker, and the bridge prizes were awarded to Mrs. John Upham and Mrs. Alva Lee. The next meeting of the club will be held Tuesday, Oct. 19, at the quarters of Mrs. Edwin Butcher.

The Sewing club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Mark Lillard at the Drayton apartments in First avenue. Mrs. F. U. Leonard will entertain the club at its next meeting, to be held on Thursday, Oct. 14.

The Crystal Bridge club was entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. I. Snyder in First avenue. Five tables of bridge were played, and the house prize was won by Mrs. W. W. Rivers. The bright autumn leaves were used with pretty effect in the decorations throughout the rooms. The next meeting of the club will be held Wednesday, Oct. 20, with Mrs. O. B. Hewitt as the hostess, at her home in the Brown flats.

The regular meeting of the Plate club will be held Thursday afternoon with Mrs. W. J. Lynch as hostess, at her home in South Fifth East street.

Mrs. Seldon Clawson will entertain the members of the Cleofan club at its meeting to be held Wednesday, Oct. 13. The topic for the day will be "The Dawn of the French Revolution," given by Mrs. H. L. A. Cullmer.

The Quintagena Card club will be entertained Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 12, at its regular fortnightly meeting at the home of Mrs. M. L. Snow in First avenue.

The Tuesday Afternoon Bridge club, which met last week at the home of Mrs. John E. Clark in Garfield avenue, will hold its next meeting Tuesday, Oct. 19, at the home of Miss Edna Dwyer in North Temple street.

The Monday Afternoon Sewing club will be entertained this week by Mrs. McManus at her home in the Smith apartments.

The T. O. N. O. club was delightfully entertained Thursday evening at the home of Miss Nellie James in Seventh East street. The house was charmingly decorated throughout in asters and in the club colors, red and green. All of the members were present, and a pleasant evening was passed in music and games. The club members also formed a party at the state fair on Tuesday evening. Miss Bessie Grace will be the hostess of the club at her home in Second avenue at the next meeting of the club to be held Thursday, Oct. 21.

Miss Jean Hyde entertained the members of her card club yesterday afternoon at her home in West North Temple street. Autumn leaves were effectively combined with red blossoms in the decorations throughout the rooms. Three tables of 500 were played. The club will be entertained at its next meeting at the home of Mrs. Howard Garret in Douglas avenue.

Miss Merle Snow entertained the members of the N. Q. S. club Friday evening at her home in Canyon Road. The club will meet next Friday at the home of Mrs. J. W. Kingsbury at 383 Fourth avenue.

The members of the Chateau club entertained their young lady friends at the state fair Thursday evening. Twelve guests formed the party, which was chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Evans.

The Social circle will give their first grand ball on Friday evening, Oct. 15, in the Pioneer Stake hall. The committee arranging the affair is composed of Fred Evans, Oscar Kirk and Earl Rytting.

The Browning section of the Ladies' Literary club will meet next Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William Igleheart in First avenue. After the luncheon the discussion of "Sordello" by the club members will be continued.

The poet's section of the Ladies' Literary club met Monday at the home of Mrs. W. R. Hutchinson in Third avenue. Readings from Wordsworth's poem, "Ruth," were given by Mrs. Stave, while his poem, "Michael," was given by Mrs. Snyder and Mrs. Hammond.

The history section of the Ladies' Literary club will meet Thursday morning, Oct. 14, at 10:15 o'clock, at the club rooms in Third East street. The paper for the day will be given by Mrs. W. H. Bratz, the topic being "The Empire and Roman Society in the First Two Centuries of Our Era."

The Monday Night Literary club was delightfully entertained this week by Dr. Alice Houghton at her home in Third avenue. The next meeting of the club will be held Monday, Oct. 18, with Miss Rosalie Pollock as hostess, at her home in the Kensington apartments.

The Orphan's Home and Day Nursery will hold a social and business meeting Monday, Oct. 11, at 3 p. m., at the orphanage on South State street. All members and friends of the association are invited to be present.

The Bay View club will meet Monday at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. L. D. Peaslee in Third avenue, this being the first regular club meeting of the present year.

The Author's club will meet at the home of Mrs. W. F. Ritter Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

The officers and members of Lynds chapter No. 1, order of the Eastern Star, will entertain at cards and dancing Monday evening at the parlors of the Masonic temple. A cordial invitation is extended to all members of the order.

The P. E. O. society will hold its next meeting at the home of Mrs. William C. Druehl, 1115 Second avenue, on Saturday, Oct. 10.

The first regular meeting of the Woman's club will be held Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Clawson S. Kinney, No. 32 East Fourth South street.

The regular meeting of the Jewish Relief society, which was to have been held Thursday, will be held Monday afternoon at 2:30 at 454 South Main street.

The next social meeting of the Daughters of the Confederacy will be held on Friday, Nov. 5, with Mrs. Shaver, 815 East Temple street.

The C. J. club was entertained on Monday night by Miss Leahy Richardson, and a delightful time spent with music and games. Country refreshments were served. The club meets next week with Mrs. Crompton.

The Ladies' Reading club held a special meeting Monday at the home of their president, Mrs. Martin. Dainty refreshments were served. The afternoon, arrangements were completed for the first regular meeting of the club, which will be held Monday, Oct. 18, at the home of Mrs. J. M. Barwell in the Smith apartments.

The Wasatch Literary club held its first regular meeting for the season Tuesday afternoon in Guntion's Memorial chapel, with Mrs. Haubert and Mrs. Duncan as the hostesses. Following the discussion of routine business and the reading of the reports, the annual address was given by the president, Mrs. Leatherwood and Mrs. Philmore gave reports on their trip to Seattle. Mrs. Zimmerman gave a vocal solo and an instrumental selection was given by Mrs. P.

The opening social of the Elks' club will be held Thursday evening, when the members of the club will entertain their lady friends at the B. P. O. E. club rooms.

D. H. Christensen has kindly invited the members of the women's clubs to be present at the meeting of the city teachers Monday, Oct. 11, at 4:15, in the assembly room of the High school gymnasium, at the lecture to be given by Henry Latchford, M. A., formerly of Inner Temple, London. The title of the lecture will be "My Personal Recollections of Tennyson, Browning, Victor Hugo and William Morris, With Incidental References to Thomas Carlyle."

Mrs. M. J. Frankland entertained the members of the Electa chapter of the O. E. S. at a delightful Kensington yesterday. Dainty refreshments were served and a musical program was given during the afternoon. The members of the chapter will entertain with an oyster supper and a masquerade party on Saturday, Oct. 30, the affair to be held at Gordon academy.

PARK CITY.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.) Park City, Oct. 9.—Mrs. John Danielson and Mrs. George H. Holland of Blackfoot, Ida., are here visiting with their sister, Mrs. Robert Dalegish.

The Park City volunteer fire department will give a concert at the Dewey theatre on Oct. 14. The best local talent will be used for the occasion.

James Bogan and family, Matt Leahy and family and Mrs. Annie Cunningham spent Sunday last at the Hot Pools.

Mrs. John Lowe of Salt Lake was in Park City the first of the week.

Bessie McClelland left Sunday afternoon for Salt Lake, where she will attend the L. D. S. business meeting.

Mrs. Joseph Murphy left for her home in Ely Tuesday afternoon, after a ten days' visit with her sister, Mrs. Michael Condon.

The following were visitors to the

Mrs. Clara Howard Stephenson

HATS

1123 Boston Bldg.

Take elevator to top floor and turn to left.

Brandwin's

One-Sixty South Main Street

state fair at Salt Lake during the week: Sherman Fargo, James Byrne, William Westerfield, Jake Cunningham, Mike Miskel, Patrick Heenan, Will Wright, Will Deason, Edward Hurlburt and George Zahra.

Thomas Cupit was a visitor to Salt Lake during the week.

Ernest Bamberger, manager of the Daly-West mine, came up from Salt Lake Monday evening in his auto.

Thomas Kearns, manager of the King Coalition mine; M. J. Daily, superintendent; C. P. Brooks, mining engineer, accompanied by E. O. McCormick of the Southern Pacific Railway company, were visiting at the mines Tuesday and Wednesday.

The St. Luke's Guild will give an apron sale and serve dinner on Oct. 14 at the Episcopal church.

Thomas J. Rowland of Alta was in the Park Tuesday, en route to Salt Lake.

James Muir, George Quinn and Frank Shields spent Sunday at Brighton.

E. P. Evans left Monday afternoon for Battle Mountain, Nev., where he will inspect some of his valuable mining ground, which is owned and controlled by himself and Thomas Kearns.

Mrs. Warren C. Bailey, of Berkeley, Cal., is here, the guest of her mother, Mrs. Eliza Nelson.

The Women's Athenaeum met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. B. Williams. After the business was transacted, the president, Mrs. A. B. Williams, gave an address and a paper on "Summer Reminiscence," written by M. P. Allen, which was read by Mrs. D. Q. Grubill.

W. T. Quinn, Jerry Shea and Joseph Langford were delegates to the State Federation of Miners' meeting, which was in session at Salt Lake Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mrs. Lucy McMullen of Alberta, Canada, is here, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Brigham Young.

Frank McEwan went to Salt Lake Monday on legal business.

W. J. Rossberg, master mechanic at the Daly-West mine, was in Salt Lake Tuesday.

Mrs. Warren Beckstead left the latter part of the week for Evanston, Wyo., where she will reside.

Miss Ruth Treweek of Salt Lake was here during the week, the guest of her brothers at the Washburn mine.

J. W. Quinn of Salt Lake was here Tuesday and Wednesday meeting old acquaintances.

John Nimmo has been appointed shift boss at the Little Bell mine.

G. W. Lambourn, manager of the Daly-West mine, was visiting at the property Wednesday.

W. H. Child of Salt Lake was visiting at the King Coalition on Tuesday.

County Attorney Peter Clark was visiting in Coalville on Tuesday.

Park lodge, K. of P. No. 4, on Tuesday evening gave a stag party to its members and friends. The Rev. C. L. Martin gave a brief speech on "Psychism," which was much enjoyed after which a banquet was served. The affair was held at Society hall.

Mrs. Jean Hampton of Salt Lake chaperoned a party of the Rowland Hall through the Silver King and Daly-West mines the first part of the week.

Mrs. C. W. Hodgson gave a dinner party Thursday evening for Robert Roy, who leaves for Cherry Creek, Nev., where he will take charge of a mill.

Elwood Garvin left Friday afternoon for Salt Lake, where he will visit with friends.

The O. E. S. P. club met at the home of Mrs. J. J. Fitzgerald on Thursday afternoon, and a Kensington party took place. The following members were present: Mesdames Joseph Kemp, William Rosevear, Joseph McLaughlin, Lorenzo Giddings, Jerome Paxton, Esther Gidley and J. J. Fitzgerald. Dainty refreshments were served. They met Oct. 21 at the home of Mrs. William Rosevear.

Church Castle, manager of the Graham Mercantile company at City, is in Park City on business.

Mrs. C. W. Hodgson was at Salt Lake Friday afternoon.

The local lodge of the Eastern Star gave a barn dance Friday evening at their hall. The affair was largely attended.

The freshmen class of the local High school entertained the students and faculty at Maple hall Friday evening. About 170 students were present, and the affair was enjoyed throughout.

Punch was served.

John Crane and wife are visiting relatives in Provo.

Miss Cora Mulgrave went to Salt Lake Friday afternoon for a brief visit.

SPANISH FORK.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.) Spanish Fork, Oct. 9.—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Young of Provo, who had been here visiting, Mrs. Young's parents, went home yesterday.

Will Davis, who went to Idaho a month ago to work, has come home because of a sore hand.

Mr. and Mrs. George King have moved to Mammoth, where they will make their future home.

John S. Olsen of this city and Jennie Chase of Springville have taken out a license to wed.

J. V. Rife, Peter Malcolm and Dan Albertson are home from Garfield, where they spent the summer.

Art Rockhill and James Wood are in from Eureka, Nev., where they have been the last two months.

The Stewart and Dart annual "honey dance" will come off Oct. 15.

Will Warner and family, who have been at Robinson, Juab county, for the year, have moved back to Spanish Fork on account of ill health of Mr. Warner.

Mrs. H. B. Robertson, who has been sick for the last two months, is better. The stores here have ceased to give half-holidays on Friday for the year.

Wells Brockbank of this city has gone to Chicago, where he will take up the study of dentistry.

C. H. Spahr and wife made a business trip to the capital city this week.

County Superintendent Child of Lehi visited the district schools here last Friday.

Rev. Bussard of Salt Lake will preach here in the Iceland chapel next Sunday on "Baptism."

Miss Constance Reese is visiting with Mrs. C. H. Spahr this week.

Miss Ellen Jameson left Friday afternoon for Salt Lake, where she will continue to study vocal music during the fall and winter months.

John D. Payzant, who moved to Mona about a year ago, has come back to Spanish Fork.

NEW BOOKS ADDED TO PUBLIC LIBRARY

The following twenty-seven volumes will be added to the public library Monday morning, Oct. 11, 1909:

Miscellaneous.

Allen—Civics and Health.

Benjamin—Modern Machine Tools.

Cornish—Panama Canal and Its Makers.

Lippis—Navajo.

Mineral Industry, 1908.

Pyle—Personal Hygiene.

Sargent—Harper's Encyclopedia of British and American Poetry.

Shurtler—Extensive Speaking.

Snyder—Chemistry of Plant and Animal Life.

White—Stonewall Jackson.

Fernch Books.

About—Le Roi des Montagnes.

Achard—Recits d'un Soldat.

Balzac—Eugenie Grandet.

Balzac—Medean de Campagne.

Balzac—Ursule Mirouet.

Fiction.

Barr—Cardillac.

Calver—Cherry Feasts.

Couch—True Tilda.

Crockett—Men of the Mountain.

Smith—Forty Minutes Late.

Tracy—Stowaway.

Children's Books.

Brooks—Randy's Prince.

Clark—We Four and Two More.

John D. Payzant, who moved to Mona about a year ago, has come back to Spanish Fork.

Walker's Walker's Walker's

An Exhibit and Sale of Furs

Monday we open the fur season with an exhibit and sale of the newest and most exclusive styles in furs, both inexpensive and high class. Sets and separate pieces that are the most fashionable effects in the Winter fur vogue—our stock is complete and represents the entire range of dependable furs—Large rug and pillow muffs, throws, scarfs and shoulder capes, plain in mode or trimmed with heads and tails—Furs of style.

- Natural Mink.
- Jap. Mink.
- Pointed Fox.
- Ermine.
- Kolinsky Sable.
- Marmot.
- Squirrel.
- Muskrat.
- Coney.
- Persian.
- Isabella Opossum.
- Isabella Fox and Black Fox.
- White Alaska Fox.
- Black and Blue Wolf.
- Black and Blue Lynx.

We also exhibit a fine assortment of long fur coats in the Russian pony. Designed with rolling collars and made 36 to 50 inches long. Muffs to match if desired.

You can buy pieces as inexpensive as $4.00 or select the exclusive furs at $35.00 to $175.00, the piece. Make selection Monday—see them.

McDonald's Fair Record for 1909

Three Gold Medals at Seattle.

Two Gold Medals at the Four-State Fair at Ogden.

Two Gold Medals at the Utah State Fair.

All for Chocolates and Cocoa

Because of QUALITY, ABSOLUTELY the HIGHEST.

HOW'S THIS, TOO!

25,000 CUPS OF McDONALD'S COCOA served at the State Fair. Everybody declared it to be the finest they ever tasted. A great demand has been created for it.

Because of Quality, Absolutely the Highest—Equal to McDonald's Chocolates

A Skin of Beauty is a Joy Forever.

DR. T. Felix Gouraud's Oriental Cream or Magical Beautifier.

Removes Tan, Pimples, Freckles, Blemishes, Redness, Rash, and Skin Diseases, and every blemish on beauty, and does so without the use of harsh chemicals. It has stood the test of 60 years, and is so harmless as to be used by the most delicate of ladies. As you ladies will use this, I recommend it.

Gouraud's Cream is the best of all the skin preparations. For sale by all druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers in the United States, Canada and Europe.

THE T. HOPKINS, Prop., 37 West Jones Street New York

Grierson—Children's Book of Celtic Stories.

Young—Motor Boys.

The CHARLTON SHOP

Women's Outfitters Exclusively.

EXCLUSIVE

Tailor Made Suits, Coats, Gowns, Evening Wraps, at Moderate Prices.

122 So. Main Salt Lake

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

August N. Swalberg and Justina Pearson, Salt Lake City.

Charles T. Thiem and Louisa Schwarz, Salt Lake City.

Joseph C. Wenger, Salt Lake City, and Olive Graham, Murray.